Tour Plan

PARO

Day: 01

Welcome to Paro, Bhutan’s panoramic district! Dukair representatives will be at the airport to welcome you. Drive to Paro Airport Birds-Eye View Point. It is located on the hill overlooking the airport and offers the best view of dramatic landings and take-offs. Then you will check in the hotel and relax. Indulge in traditional spa at the hotel (optional).

Overnight at Paro

*Please note that it may or may not be possible to visit all the sites depending on the flight timing.

Day: 02

After breakfast go to Paro Dzong for Tshechu festival.

Paro Tshechu is one of Bhutan’s most famous festivals, held in the picturesque Rinpung Dzong. During this vibrant event, which takes place from April 8th to 12th, 2025, the courtyard of Rinpung Dzong comes alive with color, music, and dance. Monks and laymen perform intricate mask dances, each with its own symbolic meaning, depicting the triumph of good over evil. The festival culminates on the last day with the unfurling of the giant Thongdrel—a sacred scroll believed to bless those who view it.

In the evening explore the town of Paro.

THIMPHU

Day: 03

Drive to Thimphu. the modern capital town of Bhutan.

- Kuensel Phodrang: On arrival in Thimphu, we will check-in to your hotel. The accommodation is an ideal spot for your exploration of Thimphu. Then visit Kuensel Phodrang (commonly known as Buddha Point) where the largest Buddha statue in the country is perched on the hillock overlooking the Thimphu Valley. You may take a nature hike through Kuenselphodrang Nature Park for about 20-30 minutes if time permits.
- Tashichho Dzong: After the visit to Kuensel Phodrang visit Tashichho Dzong, a fortress of the glorious religion. It was built in 1641 by Zhabdrung Ngawang Namgyel. It houses the secretariat building, the throne room and the office of the king, and the central monk body.
- National Memorial Chorten: The National Memorial Chorten (stupa) which was constructed in 1974 as a memorial for the third King of Bhutan, King Jigme Dorji Wangchuck.

Overnight at Thimphu

PUNAKHA

Day: 04

After breakfast, we will move to Punakha. Punakha was the former capital of Bhutan and the first national assembly was hosted here in 1953. On the way we will stop at Dochula pass.

- Dochula Pass: There are 108 Druk Wangyel Chortens at the 3,100-meter-high Dochula Pass, which separates the Punakha and Thimphu valleys. On a clear day, the view of the Himalayan Mountains from the pass is breathtaking. Also visit Druk Wangyal Lhakhang (temple). The past and future appear to merge in the details of the lhakhang that tells the story of a supreme warrior figure whose vision pierces the distant future. Then drive onto Punakha.

- Punakha Dzong: After breakfast visit Punakha Dzong, located between two rivers; the Pho Chu (Male River) and the Mochu (Female River) . The dzong was built in 1637 by Zhabdrung Ngawang Namgyal (the person who unified Bhutan) to serve as the religious and administrative seat of the region.
- Chimi Lhakhang: On the way, stop at Metsina village and take a 20-minute walk through the paddy fields to visit Chhimi Lhakhang also known as the fertility temple. It is famously known for its fertility shrine, where one can receive a special fertility blessing.

Overnight at Punakha

PARO

Drive to Paro and visit the following places.

- Kichu Lhakhang: Visit one of the oldest and most sacred temples of the kingdom known as Kyichu Lhakhang. The story goes that a giant demon lay across the whole area of Tibet and the Himalayas to prevent the spread of Buddhism. To subdue her, King Songtsen Gampo decided to build 108 temples, which would be placed on all the points of her body. Of these 108 temples, one is Kyichu Lhakhang.
- Drukgyel Dzong: If time permits drive up the valley to view the ruins of Drukgyel Dzong, 18 km. from Paro town to the north side of the valley. It was from here that the Bhutanese repelled several invading Tibetan armies during the 17th century. In the evening stroll around Paro town and you may visit the local handicraft stores if you wish.
- Overnight: COMO Uma Paro

Day: 05

Tiger's Nest Monastery

Kickstart the day with a hike to Taktsang Monastery, famously known as Tiger's Nest. The Taktsang Monastery which seems perched against the cliff is nearly 3000 meters above sea level. This monument is a most revered Himalayan pilgrimage site.
